AWARD

This is an Industrial Dispute referred for adjudication by the Government of Kerala by order G. O. (Rt) No. 409/81/LBR dated, 21-3-1981. The reference was initially to the Industrial Tribunal, Alleppey. Subsequently, after the constitution of this Tribunal, the dispute was transferred to this Tribunal, and re-filed in the present number. The issues referred for adjudication are:-

(1) Pay revision to the employees in the Kerala Newsprint Project including interim relief thereon

(2) Ex-gratia for the year 1977-78 & 1978-79

In pursuance to notices, all the unions except Union No. 4 and the management have filed their respective statements. Subsequently when the case came up for evidence the unions did not appear or adduce any evidence either in person or through counsel. Notices were therefore issued to the unions informing them of the next posting date. Inspite of notices the unions remained absent on the next posting date also and, all unions were therefore set ex-parte.

Thus it is seen that all the unions who are parties to this dispute subsequently remained absent at the evidence stage. There is no evidence also in support of the claims of the unions. The management has filed an affidavit to the effect that the unions have not established their demands.

In the result an award is passed declaring that the unions are not entitled to any relief.

AWARD

The issue referred for adjudication by Government as per G. O. (Rt.) No. 1249/79/L&H dated 27-8-1979 is "Denial of employment to Shri P. K. Kadirkutty".

2. There is no Union espousing the cause of the workman. The workman Shri Kadirkutty complains in his claim statement as follows:–

He was working as the Manager of one of the Ration Shops belonging to the Management Bank (hereinafter referred to as the Bank) continuously from 7-11-1964. While so the licence of the Ration Shop was cancelled by the Government with effect from 31-7-1975. But later the Bank was given the licence of the same shop by the Government with effect from 6-4-1978. The Bank is operating that ration shop from that date employing some other persons. His services were not legally terminated in 1975. He was not provided employment even when this particular ration shop resumed functioning under the Bank in April 1978. In the circumstances it has to be treated as a case of denial of employment to the workman from 6-4-1978. The workman is, therefore, entitled to reinstatement as the Manager of the ration shop with arrears in wages from 6-4-1978. Relief in that nature is what is claimed.

3. The Bank in its written statement contends that Shri Kadirkutty was not a workman as that term is defined in the Industrial Disputes Act as he was only an independent contractor entrusted with the management of the ration shop as per the terms of written contracts executed by him. The contract ceased to have effect when the licence was cancelled in 1975. The Bank successfully contested the correctness of the order cancelling the licence and it is being managed under other arrangements. Shri Kadirkutty had no right to revive the contract. He is therefore not entitled to any reliefs. The Bank has no liability to reinstate him or to pay him back wages.

4. A rejoinder is also filed by Shri Kadirkutty traversing the contentions of the Management and reiterating his earlier claims.

5. No evidence, oral or documentary, was adduced by either side regarding the main matter in controversy. There was an earlier industrial dispute between the Bank and some other Ration Shop Managers as I. D. 34 of 1979 before this Court. There also the contention of the Bank was that the Ration Shop Managers who worked under it were independent contractors and not workmen as per the Industrial Disputes Act. In the award passed by me in that case published in the Kerala Gazette No. 25 dated 23rd June 1981. I negatived the contention of the Management and held that the Ration Shop Managers were absorbed as workmen with effect from 14-12-1968. It is common case that that award has become final. It was also agreed that this case may also be disposed of on the basis of the findings in that award.

6. Now we have to proceed further accepting the position that Shri Kadirkutty was a workman. The admitted facts indicate that the concerned

Ration Shop was not available from 1975 to 1978 with the Bank consequent on the cancellation of its licence. The services of Shri Kadirkutty were not terminated observing the formalities and Shri Kadirkutty also did not stake his claim for continued employment in some other capacity or as Manager of another shop at the appropriate time. His case is that he should have been recalled and put in charge of the ration shop when the Bank succeeded in reviving the licence. His definite case is that employees junior to him in length of service were continuing and he should have been provided an opportunity for employment when this ration shop was started again. There is no acceptable defence for this claim. So Shri Kadirkutty should have been re-entertained when this ration shop resumed functioning in 1978. He is seemed to have raised the dispute claiming reinstatement without delay. The Bank was resisting the claim advancing the contention that he was only an independent contractor. That defence is no more available. So the position is that he should have been re-entertained in 1978. The Bank did not do that and so Shri Kadirkutty had been denied a legitimate right.

7. Now remains the relief to which Shri Kadirkutty is entitled. There was a dispute regarding the age of Shri Kadirkutty and so he produced a certificate showing the same. That was marked at the time of arguments as Ext. W1. It was conceded on behalf of the Bank that the age may be assessed on the basis of that certificate where his date of birth given is 30-12-1930. He is now 53 years and he has only few more years to work. The Bank had already made alternate arrangements for conducting the ration shop. Admittedly Shri Kadirkutty was working as the Manager on the basis of a contract on commission basis. Even Shri Kadirkutty did not challenge the automatic termination of his employment when the licence of the ration shop was cancelled. That is an indication to infer that Shri Kadirkutty also did not consider himself as a regular employee of the Bank at that time. In these state of affairs the Bank's case that it was also under the bonafide belief that Shri Kadirkutty was only a Contractor and that is why he was not reinstated when the licence was resumed has to be taken as genuine. In these circumstances unsettling the alternate arrangements already made, throwing out another employee who is in service which will be an inevitable result if a reinstatement is ordered, has to be avoided. Awarding sufficient compensation and back wages to Shri Kadirkutty will be advantageous to all concerned in the peculiar circumstances.

8. As was mentioned in the award in I. D. 34/79 the Ration Shop Managers were absorbed in the regular service of the Bank only from 14-12-1968. So Shri Kadirkutty is to be deemed to have been in service as a workman from that date till today except for the break when he was out of service for reasons beyond the control of the Bank from 31-7-1975 till 6-4-1978. From 6-4-1978 till this date he is entitled to back wages. The rate of back wages cannot be fixed in this reference for want of details. That will have to be worked out by the parties by mutual agreement or decided in appropriate other proceedings. On the basis of the rate that is to be fixed in that manner Shri Kadirkutty will be entitled to gratuity for the service from 14-12-1968 till today except for the interval 31-7-1975 to 6-4-1978. The total service works out to nearly 12 years. This can be considered as 12 years for the purpose of gratuity. So he is entitled to fifteen days salary as gratuity for each of the twelve years. He will also be paid twelve months salary as compensation in lieu of reinstatement. An award is passed accordingly.
